

Our commitment to your privacy

At WebIT3000 Inc., your privacy is important to us. So we've developed a Privacy Policy that covers how we collect, use, disclose, transfer, and store your information.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

By using our website, APPs, applications, you hereby consent to our collection, use, management, retention, and disclosure of your information, you provide.

Personal information is data that can be used to identify or contact users of our website and APPs.

You may be asked to provide your personal information anytime you are in contact with WebIT3000 Inc. or affiliated company. WebIT3000 Inc. and its affiliates may share this personal information with each other and use it consistent with this Privacy Policy. They may also combine it with other information to provide and improve our products, services, content, and advertising. You are not required to provide the personal information that we have requested, but, if you chose not to do so, in many cases we will not be able to provide you with our products or services or respond to any queries you may have.

What personal information we collect

When you create an account or use our APP products, purchase a product, download a software update, contact us or participate in a survey, we may collect a variety of information, including your name, address, phone number, and email address,

How we use your personal information

The personal information we collect allows us to keep you posted on using the website, applications or APPs, the latest product related announcements, updates, and events. If you decide you don't want to be use our products, you can opt out anytime by updating your preferences.

We also use personal information to help us create, develop, operate, deliver, and improve our products, services, content and advertising, and for loss prevention and anti-fraud purposes.

We may use your personal information, including date of birth, to verify identity, assist with identification of users, and to determine appropriate services. For example, we may use date of birth to determine the age of account holders.

From time to time, we may use your personal information to send important notices, such as communications about changes to our terms, conditions, and policies. Because this information is important to your interaction with us, you may not opt out of receiving these communications.

We may also use personal information for internal purposes such as auditing, data analysis, and research to improve our products, services, and customer communications.

Collection and Use of Non-Personal Information

We also collect data in a form that does not, on its own, permit direct association with any specific individual. We may collect, use, transfer, and disclose non-personal information for any purpose. The following are some examples of non-personal information that we collect and how we may use it:

We may collect information such as occupation, language, postal code, zip code, area code, unique device identifier, your IP address, referrer URL, location, device location and the time zone where a Vote Strategy product or APP is used so that we can better understand customer behavior and improve our products, services, and advertising.

We may collect information regarding customer activities on our website, Cloud services, any APP Store, including Apple Store, iTunes, Google Play Store and from other products and services. This information is aggregated and used to help us provide more useful information to our customers and to understand which parts of our website, APPs, products, and services are of most interest. Aggregated data is considered non-personal information for the purposes of this Privacy Policy.

We may collect and store details of how you use our services, including search queries. This information may be used to improve the relevancy of results provided by our services. Except in limited instances to ensure quality of our services over the Internet, such information will not be associated with your IP address.

WebIT3000 Inc. Privacy Policy

July 24, 2017

If we do combine non-personal information with personal information the combined information will be treated as personal information for as long as it remains combined.

Cookies and Other Technologies

WebIT3000 Inc. websites, online services, APPs, interactive applications, email messages, surveys and advertisements may use “cookies” and other technologies such as pixel tags and web beacons. These technologies help us better understand our users, tell us which parts of our websites and APPs users have visited, and facilitate and measure the effectiveness of our products. We treat information collected by cookies and other technologies as non-personal information. However, to the extent that Internet Protocol (IP) addresses or similar identifiers are considered personal information by local law, we also treat these identifiers as personal information. Similarly, to the extent that non-personal information is combined with personal information, we treat the combined information as personal information for the purposes of this Privacy Policy.

WebIT3000 Inc. and our partners also use cookies and other technologies to remember personal information when you use our website, APPs, online services, and applications. Our goal in these cases is to make your experience with us more convenient and personal. For example, knowing your first name lets us welcome you the next time you visit our site. Knowing someone using your computer or device or used a particular service helps us make products more relevant to you. And knowing your contact information, hardware identifiers, and information about your computer or device helps keep your information safer.

If you want to disable cookies and you're using the Safari web browser, go to Safari preferences and then to the privacy pane to manage your preferences. On your Apple mobile device, go to Settings, then Safari, scroll down to the Privacy & Security section, and tap on "Block Cookies" to manage your preferences. For other browsers, check with your provider to find out how to disable cookies. Please note that certain features of our products will not be available once cookies are disabled.

We gather some information automatically and store the information. This information includes Internet Protocol (IP) addresses, device location, browser type and language, Internet service provider (ISP), referring and exit websites and applications, operating system, date/time stamp, and clickstream data.

We use this information to understand and analyze trends, to administer the site, to learn about user behavior on the site, to improve our product and services, and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole. We may use this information in our products, APPs, marketing and services.

In some of our communication, we use a “click-through URL” linked to content on the website or APP. When customers click one of these URLs, they pass through a separate web server before arriving at the destination page on our website or APP. We track this click-through data to help us determine interest in particular topics and measure the effectiveness of our customer communications. We may also use Pixel tags that enable us to send email messages in a format customers can read, and they tell us whether mail has been opened. We may use this information to reduce or eliminate messages sent to customers and for analytical purposes.

Disclosure to Third Parties

We may make certain personal information available to strategic partners that work with us to provide products and services. Personal information will not be shared with third parties for their marketing purposes.

Others

It may be necessary – by law, legal process, litigation, and/or requests from public and governmental authorities within or outside your country of residence – for WebIT3000 Inc. to disclose your personal information. We may also disclose information about you if we determine that for purposes of national security, law enforcement, or other issues of public importance, disclosure is necessary or appropriate.

We may also disclose information about you if we determine that disclosure is reasonably necessary to enforce our terms and conditions or protect our operations or users. Additionally, in the event of a reorganization, merger, or sale we may transfer any and all personal information we collect to the relevant third party.

Children & Education

We understand the importance of taking extra precautions to protect the privacy and safety of children using Vote Strategy Inc. products and services. Children under the age of 18, or equivalent minimum age in the relevant jurisdiction, are not permitted to create their own account. If we learn that we have collected the personal information of a child under 18, or equivalent minimum age depending on jurisdiction, outside the above circumstances we will take steps to delete the information as soon as possible.

Location-Based Services

To provide location-based services on WebIT3000 Inc. WebIT3000 Inc. and our partners and licensees may collect, use, and share precise location data, including the real-time geographic location of device. Where available, location-based services may use GPS, Bluetooth, and your IP Address, along with crowd-sourced Wi-Fi hotspot and cell tower locations, and other technologies to determine your devices' approximate location. Unless you provide consent, this location data is collected anonymously in a form that does not personally identify you and is used by us and our partners and licensees to provide and improve location-based products and services. For example, your device may share its geographic location with application providers when you opt in to their location services.

Thrd-Party Sites and Services

WebIT3000 Inc. websites, APPs, products, applications, and services may contain links to third-party websites, APPs, products, and services. Our products and services may also use or offer products or services from third parties – for example, a third-party iPhone or Google Play App.

Information collected by third parties, which may include such things as location data or contact details, is governed by their privacy practices.

Privacy Questions

If you have any questions or concerns about Apple's Privacy Policy or data processing or if you would like to make a complaint about a possible breach of local privacy laws, please contact WebIT3000 Inc. You can always contact us through the WebIT3000 Inc. website.

We may update its Privacy Policy from time to time. Check our web site for the most up to date Privacy Policy.
